

HONORS & AWARDS

Dr. Kapur has been recognized for her outstanding achievements by the following Honors and Awards

1

VITREORETINAL SURGERY FOUNDATION FELLOW AWARD (2009)

The VitreoRetinal Surgery Foundation recognized four trainees with research awards and fellowships, enabling them to pursue research investigations.

2

ILLINOIS SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION OF BLINDNESS SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AWARD (2009)

The Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness (ISPB) was founded in 1916 to reduce preventable causes of blindness. ISPB has a rich history of promoting vision and eye health in the state of Illinois

3

HEED FOUNDATION RESIDENTS RETREAT (2007)

Residents, nominated by their department chairs and residency program directors, and faculty, including recent K-awardees, mid-career and senior faculty, will gather for two half-days to discuss careers in academic ophthalmology.

4

MIDWEST EYE-BANKS SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AWARD (2004)

Midwest Eye-Banks is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to eye restoration through the recovery, evaluation and distribution of human eye tissue to people with blinding eye conditions. The organization also supports preliminary research for the causes and cures of blinding eye conditions.

5

NATIONAL EYE INSTITUTE/ ARVO TRAVEL AWARD (2004)

The National Eye Institute Travel Award supports researchers who conduct their work in the United States.

6

GOLD MEDAL AWARD/VALEDICTORIAN MEERUT UNIVERSITY (2003)

This award is granted for outstanding achievements in academics at Meerut University.

7

AWARD FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE BY STARS PROGRAM AT LOYOLA UNIVERSITY (1996)

This program celebrates diversity and outstanding academic success through peer mentorship. This award is granted to a member who actively builds communities, fosters empowerment and thrives by creating opportunities for students to prosper academically, professionally, and socially throughout their experience at Loyola University Chicago.

